

DIVIDEND POLICY

Committed to creating value for stakeholders, the Bank must find a balance between maximizing shareholders' returns and pursuing sustainable business growth.

The Bank's dividend policy considers various factors, including soundness, financial conditions, capital requirements, future growth plans and compliance with regulatory provisions. The right to make the final decisions rests with the General Meeting of Shareholders.